Independent and Escorted Rail Tours

What Is the Difference?

Whether you hope to stay close to home or travel across the globe, the world is your oyster when you book a tour through Vacations By Rail. When you are ready to set off on one of our well-planned expeditions, you have the option to choose our self-paced Independent Tours, or travel with the services of a professional Tour Manager on our Escorted Tours. Before booking, learn which option is right for you.

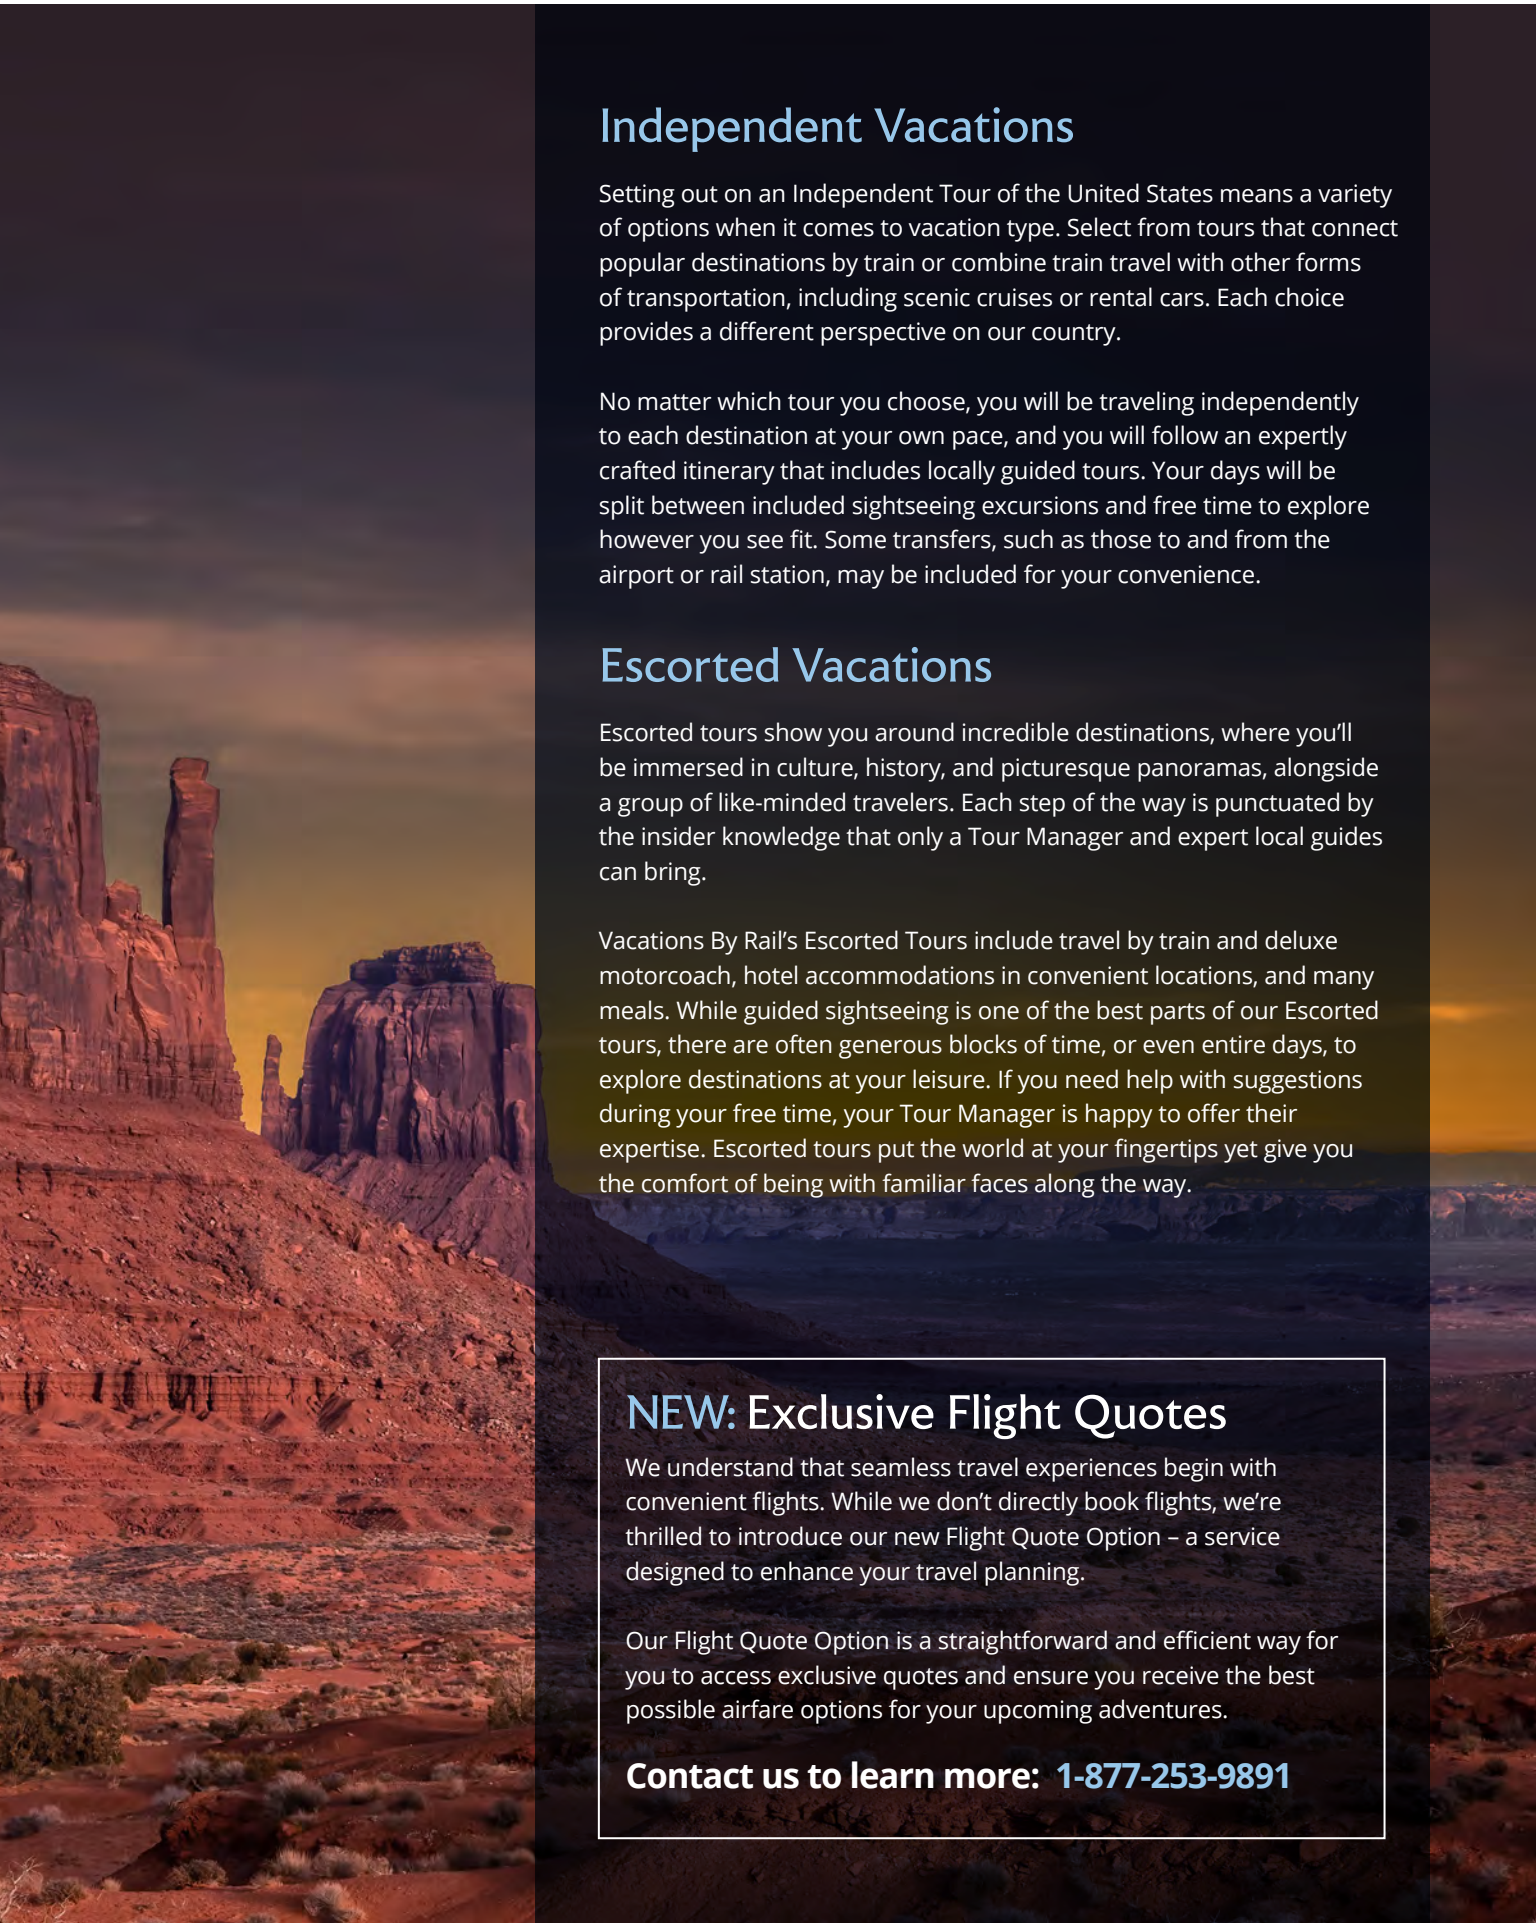

INDEPENDENT

MONUMENT VALLEY

Independent Vacations

Setting out on an Independent Tour of the United States means a variety of options when it comes to vacation type. Select from tours that connect popular destinations by train or combine train travel with other forms of transportation, including scenic cruises or rental cars. Each choice provides a different perspective on our country.

No matter which tour you choose, you will be traveling independently to each destination at your own pace, and you will follow an expertly crafted itinerary that includes locally guided tours. Your days will be split between included sightseeing excursions and free time to explore however you see fit. Some transfers, such as those to and from the airport or rail station, may be included for your convenience.

Escorted Vacations

Escorted tours show you around incredible destinations, where you'll be immersed in culture, history, and picturesque panoramas, alongside a group of like-minded travelers. Each step of the way is punctuated by the insider knowledge that only a Tour Manager and expert local guides can bring.

Vacations By Rail's Escorted Tours include travel by train and deluxe motorcoach, hotel accommodations in convenient locations, and many meals. While guided sightseeing is one of the best parts of our Escorted tours, there are often generous blocks of time, or even entire days, to explore destinations at your leisure. If you need help with suggestions during your free time, your Tour Manager is happy to offer their expertise. Escorted tours put the world at your fingertips yet give you the comfort of being with familiar faces along the way.

NEW: Exclusive Flight Quotes

We understand that seamless travel experiences begin with convenient flights. While we don't directly book flights, we're thrilled to introduce our new Flight Quote Option – a service designed to enhance your travel planning.

Our Flight Quote Option is a straightforward and efficient way for you to access exclusive quotes and ensure you receive the best possible airfare options for your upcoming adventures.

Fall Colors, Scenic Trains & Martha's Vineyard

Surround yourself with a kaleidoscope of autumnal colors on this scenic tour of the New England and the Eastern Seaboard.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Beantown arrival
Arrive in Boston and transfer to the hotel where you meet the Tour Manager. Overnight Boston, MA.

Days 2-3: Maritime Maine
This morning, we learn about Boston's rich history on a guided city tour, before a coach journey to Maine. On Day 3, a sightseeing trip and a cruise along the Kennebec River reveals the beauty of Maine in the fall. Later, we enjoy a lobster dinner. Overnights Portland, ME.

Days 4-5: New Hampshire
The Conway Scenic Railroad takes us on a breathtaking trip through New Hampshire's russet leaves. Next, we travel along the Kancamagus Scenic Byway to Franconia Notch State Park – one of the best foliage viewing areas. On Day 5, a cruise on Lake Winnipesaukee provides the chance to explore charming Wolfeboro. Overnights Plymouth, NH.

Day 6: Scenic Sturbridge
New England's idyllic fall foliage is revealed on a drive to Sturbridge, where we enjoy a traditional dinner. Overnight Sturbridge, MA.

Day 7: Old Sturbridge & Essex
Step back in time at Old Sturbridge Village, with buildings and farms laid out to present a look at rural life in the 1800s. Continuing by coach to Essex, a heritage steam train hauls us along the scenic Connecticut River Valley before our journey concludes on the vintage Becky Thatcher Riverboat. Overnight Mystic, CT.

Days 8-9: Mystic & Cape Cod
Visiting Mystic Seaport, we uncover a recreation of a 19th-century coastal village. In Hyannis, we embark on an evening rail trip through cranberry bogs aboard the Cape Cod Central Railroad's Dinner Train. Day 9 sees us take an excursion by ferry from Cape Cod to the island retreat of Martha's Vineyard. Once on the island, we enjoy tales of its fishing and whaling past, and embark on a visit to the colorful Victorian gingerbread cottages of Oak Bluffs. Later, we return to Cape Cod by ferry. Overnights Hyannis, MA.

Day 10: Homeward bound
Your tour concludes with a transfer to Boston's South Station or Logan Airport for departures after 1pm.

QUEBEC CITY

Fall Colors of New England, Quebec & Montreal

Scenic rail excursions, superb hotels and vibrant foliage are the hallmarks of this escorted tour of New England and French Canada.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Boston
Transfer on your own to your Boston hotel to meet the Tour Manager and group. Overnight Boston, MA.

Days 2-3: Fall foliage in Vermont
After breakfast, we board our deluxe motorcoach and travel to Meredith, NH, for a fall foliage train excursion aboard the Winnipesaukee Scenic Railroad. Later, we continue to Essex, a quintessential New England town in Vermont. Day 3 starts with a visit to Morse Maple Farm Sugarworks for a tasting of their famed produce before venturing to the 'Top of Vermont' on the Stowe Gondola for incredible views from the summit of Mount Mansfield. Overnights Essex, VT.

Days 4-5: Crossing to Montreal
A trip across the Canadian border takes us to cultural Montreal, where we enjoy a guided sightseeing tour of Montreal's must-see locations. On our trip, we visit Notre-Dame Basilica, Mont Royal and Old Montreal. Day 5 is free to explore at leisure, and you may like to visit one of the city's many museums or spend time leaf-peeping in the Botanical Garden or Parc La Fontaine. Overnights Montreal.

Days 6-7: Train to Quebec City
VIA Rail's Corridor Service transports us to Quebec City in time for lunch at a local restaurant. Afterward, we set off on a narrated tour of the city, including Place Royale and the Plains of Abraham. On Day 7, we visit Montmorency Falls, an impressive waterfall taller than Niagara Falls. Our day concludes with a fine-dining experience. Overnights Quebec City.

Days 8-9: Touring New Hampshire
Traveling via colorful Sherbrooke, our coach takes us back into the States, to the heart of leaf-peeping country in New Hampshire's White Mountains. On Day 9, we take in one of the best fall foliage drives as we follow the Kancamagus Highway along 34-miles of beautiful scenery. In the afternoon, we ride North America's steepest train, the Mount Washington Cog Railway for amazing views from the summit of the northeast's highest peak. Overnights Bretton Woods, NH.

Day 10: Homeward bound
Your tour concludes today with a group transfer to Boston South Station or Boston Logan Airport to accommodate departures after 1pm.

Alaska Northern Lights & Winter Nights – An Escorted Journey

Embark on an enchanting escorted tour through the heart of Alaska's snow-covered interior providing great opportunities to witness the incredible Northern Lights.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Fairbanks
As you arrive in Fairbanks, head to our hotel and meet the Tour Manager this evening. Overnight Fairbanks, AK.

Day 2: Aurora Pointe
After a relaxed morning, we take part in a great ice-breaker, a curling lesson as we learn all about this sport. A highlight awaits this evening as we head into the wilderness to Aurora Pointe. An expert guide is on hand as we seek out the magical Northern Lights. Overnight Fairbanks, AK.

Day 3: Museum of the North
Having potentially had a late night, there's a free morning before a visit to Ice Alaska, viewing stunning ice sculptures from the World Ice Art Championships. Later, we uncover the state's history at the Museum of the North. Overnight Fairbanks, AK.

Day 4: Aurora Winter Train
Boarding the beloved Aurora Winter Train for an all-day trip, we settle in to comfortable seats as the train plows gently through thick snow. Lunch is served, so we can dine while viewing dramatic Denali from the picture windows. Overnight Talkeetna, AK.

Day 5: Dog-sledding experience
Traveling along Parks Highway, we arrive at the Alaska Mushing School for an enchanting experience. Hauled by energetic dogs, guided by a professional dogsledder, we glide across snow-covered tundra, keeping our eyes peeled for moose, foxes and eagles. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 6: Alyeska Aerial Tramway
Turnagain Arm serves up stunning views enroute to Girdwood. Here, we ride the Alyeska Aerial Tramway to the mountain summit for incredible views. After, we tour the Alaska Wildlife Conservation Center, encountering bears, wolves, bison and lynx among others. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 7: Homeward bound
Your tour concludes and you can transfer to the airport on your own.

DOG SLEDDING

Alaska Northern Lights & Aurora Train

All the elements of a quintessential Alaskan vacation lie ahead on this expedition featuring the Northern Lights, dog sledding, and glacier explorations.

YOUR ITINERARY

Days 1-3: Fairbanks by day, Aurora by night
Your Alaskan expedition begins in Fairbanks, one of the best places globally to see the Aurora Borealis. By day, you are free to explore the city and its amenities at leisure. This time of year brings long hours of darkness, but as night falls in earnest, you have the opportunity to hunt the Northern Lights in remote locations outside the city boundaries. On the evening of Day 2, you head out to Chena Hot Springs, while Day 3 provides another chance to witness the Northern Lights at an aurora viewing yurt in the Alaskan wilderness. Overnights Fairbanks, AK.

Day 4: Riding the Aurora Winter Train to Anchorage
The Alaska Railroad's Aurora Winter Train leads the way through snow-clad landscapes to Anchorage on the Cook Inlet today. This ride is a grand introduction to Alaska, and passes through Denali National Park enroute. On arrival in Anchorage, make your way to your hotel with the remainder of the evening at leisure. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 5: Talkeetna dog sledding
After traveling along a scenic highway, you can immerse yourself in a time-honored mode of transportation, which has become a sport and a way of life in Alaska: dog sledding. At the kennels in Talkeetna, you can learn more about dog sledding and experience its thrills in person. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 6: Matanuska Glacier Tour
Alongside an expert guide, hike on to the surface of the 27-miles long Matanuska Glacier. Enjoy a chance to explore and admire its crystal-blue crevasses, spellbinding ice formations and picture-perfect panoramas, which extend over the Alaskan Range, the Talkeetna Mountains and the Chugach Mountains. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 7: Homeward bound
After experiencing the best of Alaska in winter, your quintessential aurora adventure concludes this morning and you are free to return home. You can opt to extend your Alaska winter adventure with a helicopter journey over this winter wonderland.

Aurora Viewing at Bettles Lodge

On this Alaskan expedition, experience the peaceful solitude of nature and one of the world's most amazing and beautiful natural events – the Aurora Borealis.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Anchorage
Make your way to your centrally located hotel in Anchorage. Spend the remainder of the day exploring this first stop on your Alaskan adventure – perhaps with a tour of the Anchorage Museum or the Alaska Native Heritage Center. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 2: Anchorage to Fairbanks on the Aurora Winter Train
This morning, board the Alaska Railroad's Aurora Winter Train bound for Fairbanks. Settle in and enjoy slowing down for the leisurely journey through the state of Alaska. The snow-covered scenes enroute are incredible. Look out for the state's famed wildlife and glimpses of Denali mountain. This evening, as the train arrives in Fairbanks, transfer to your hotel and enjoy the amenities of the city. Overnight Fairbanks, AK.

Days 3-4: Aurora viewing evening at Bettles Lodge
An adventure awaits today at Bettles Lodge. A flight from Fairbanks takes you across the Yukon River and over the Arctic Circle enroute to Bettles. On arrival, enjoy a guided tour of Bettles Village. Day 4 is yours to enjoy the untouched beauty of Alaska's wilderness. In the evenings, enjoy communal bonfires in the lodge as the sun goes down and look up for the main event, the Aurora Borealis. Overnight Bettles Lodge, AK.

Day 5: Return to Fairbanks
Soak in the sights and serenity of nature as you enjoy breakfast at the lodge this morning. Afterward, check out of Bettles Lodge and board the plane for the return flight south to Fairbanks. Transfer to your Fairbanks hotel, then enjoy the remainder of the day at leisure. There are many options in this popular city, and you could visit one of the many museums, meander through downtown to see the public art displays, get a taste of Alaska at one of the fine eateries or breweries, or immerse yourself in the Gold Rush history that can be found throughout Fairbanks. Overnight Fairbanks, AK.

Day 6: Homeward bound
Your vacation concludes as you check out of your hotel this morning and make your way to Fairbanks Airport for your return flight home.

KENAI FJORDS

Alaska the Greatland

America's Last Frontier beckons on this exciting tour, featuring mighty fjords, stunning national parks, and authentic Alaskan experiences surrounded by vast wilderness.

YOUR ITINERARY

Days 1-2: Fairbanks
Arrive in Fairbanks and transfer to your hotel. Check in for the first of two nights and meet the Tour Manager. On Day 2, we set sail on a riverboat journey which takes us along the Chena River to its confluence with the Tanana River. Afterward, we tour Trail Breaker Kennel where we are introduced to the state sport, dog mushing. Overnights Fairbanks, AK.

Days 3-4: Denali National Park
We join the Alaska Railroad's Denali Star for a stunning journey through great stretches of forest and wide-open land to Denali National Park. Find yourself immersed in the park's natural and cultural history on Day 4 as we explore the expansive park on a guided tour featuring a memorable presentation about Native American culture. Overnights Denali, AK.

Day 5: Denali Star to Talkeetna
After free time to relax this morning, we reboard the Denali Star. Keep a lookout for views of Denali as this fantastic train ventures southward toward Talkeetna. One of the best photo vantage points on the route comes as the train approaches the arched Hurricane Gulch Bridge. Overnight Talkeetna, AK.

Day 6: Exploring Kenai Peninsula and Seward
A day of travel presents south-central Alaska's glorious scenery. We first head to the Anchorage Museum, then journey along the scenic Turnagain Arm to Mount Alyeska. From here, we head down the Kenai Peninsula to coastal Seward. Overnight Seward, AK.

Day 7: Kenai Fjords
Prepare to be amazed by Alaska's marine life and unbelievable views during a wildlife cruise through Kenai Fjords. Our catamaran is skillfully navigated to provide picture-perfect views of tidewater glaciers and scenic locations such as Resurrection Bay. Overnight Seward, AK.

Day 8: Prince William Sound, Surprise Glacier and Anchorage
Enjoy a drive through the Anton Memorial Tunnel to Whittier, where we cruise through Prince William Sound and view Surprise Glacier. We later join the Glacier Discovery train to Anchorage. Overnight Anchorage, AK.

Day 9: Homeward bound
Your tour through Alaska concludes in Anchorage today and there's a complimentary hotel shuttle to take you to the airport for your flight.
