Independent and Escorted Rail Tours:

What Is the Difference?

Whether you hope to stay close to home or travel across the globe, the world is your oyster when you book a tour through Vacations By Rail. When you are ready to set off on one of our well-planned expeditions, you have the option to choose our self-paced Independent Tours, or travel with the services of a professional Tour Manager on our Escorted Tours. Before booking, learn which option is right for you.

INDEPENDENT

JUNGFRAU EXPRESS

Independent Vacations

Setting out on an Independent Tour of Europe means a variety of options when it comes to vacation type. Select from tours that focus on cuisine and culture, lakes and mountains, or journeys on iconic railways. Each choice provides a different perspective on these countries.

No matter which tour you choose, you will be traveling independently to each destination at your own pace, and you will follow an expertly crafted itinerary that includes locally guided tours. Your days will be split between included sightseeing excursions and free time to explore however you see fit. Some transfers, such as those to and from the airport or rail station, may be included for your convenience.

Escorted Vacations

Escorted Tours whisk you around the globe alongside like-minded travelers to fantastic regions where immersive culture, centuries of history, and picturesque panoramas come standard. Under the guidance of a professional Tour Manager, you and your fellow travelers can explore the continent's most popular destinations, from Italy, Switzerland and Scotland to just about anywhere else you could think of. Each step of the way is punctuated by the insider knowledge that only a Tour Manager and expert local guides can bring.

Vacations By Rail's Escorted Tours include travel by train and deluxe motorcoach, hotel accommodations in convenient locations, and many meals. While guided sightseeing is one of the best parts of our Escorted Tours, there are often generous blocks of time, or even entire days, to explore destinations at your leisure. If you need help with suggestions during your free time, your Tour Manager is happy to offer their expertise. Escorted Tours put the world at your fingertips yet give you the comfort of being with familiar faces along the way.

NEW: Exclusive Flight Quotes

We understand that seamless travel experiences begin with convenient flights. While we don't directly book flights, we're thrilled to introduce our new Flight Quote Option – a service designed to enhance your travel planning.

Our Flight Quote Option is a straightforward and efficient way for you to access exclusive quotes and ensure you receive the best possible airfare options for your upcoming adventures.

JACOBITE STEAM TRAIN

LOCH NESS

Edinburgh, the Highlands and Islands

Experience the wonders of Scotland's majestic lochs, glens, castles, and breathtaking scenery on a fabulous round-trip rail adventure across Edinburgh and the Highlands.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Edinburgh
Your fantastic Scottish vacation begins in the capital, meeting the Tour Manager at our central hotel. Overnight Edinburgh.

Day 2: The West Highland Line
Today we travel to Glasgow, before changing trains for a journey on one of the world's most spectacular scenic railway lines, the West Highland Line. Passing Loch Lomond and crossing Rannoch Moor, we reach our hotel for three nights. Overnight Fort William.

Days 3-4: Isle of Mull and Glencoe
From the small town of Oban, we cross by ferry to the Isle of Mull. There is time to soak up the ambience of colorful Tobermory. Returning to the mainland, we enjoy a whisky tasting at our hotel. After viewing the eight canal locks that make up Neptune's Staircase on Day 4, cruise Loch Linnhe and drive through Glencoe, both revealing breathtaking scenery. Overnights Fort William.

Day 5: The Jacobite Steam Train
A journey on the iconic Jacobite steam train* is arguably the most famous rail journey in the UK. We cross the Glenfinnan Viaduct seen in the Harry Potter movies on the way to coastal Mallaig. A return coach journey takes us to our new hotel. Overnight Inverness.
On early/late season departures the Jacobite steam train is replaced by a Scotrail service.*

Days 6-7: Loch Ness & Eilean Donan
During a cruise of Loch Ness, don't forget to keep an eye out for its mythical dweller, the Loch Ness Monster! Back on land, we tour scenic Urquhart Castle. On Day 7, a picturesque rail journey on the Kyle Line takes us to the west coast, where we visit famous Eilean Donan Castle. This evening, a storyteller regales us with time-honored Scottish myths and legends. Overnights Inverness.

Day 8: Inverness to Edinburgh
Leaving Inverness, we travel south to Edinburgh for a spectacular farewell banquet accompanied by authentic entertainment. Overnight Edinburgh.

Day 9: Homeward bound
Your tour concludes today and you can begin your journey home at leisure.

The Best of Scotland and Ireland

Explore the natural beauty of three of the British Isles' most scenic countries, showcasing the delights of the Scottish Highlands, Northern Ireland, and the Republic of Ireland.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Vibrant Edinburgh
Your amazing Celtic adventure begins in Scotland's capital. Overnight Edinburgh.

Days 2-3: Inverness and the Highlands
Traveling north by train to Inverness, we savor a taste of Scotland at the Uile-bheist distillery. Day 3 commences with a journey on the Kyle Line to Eilean Donan Castle. Later, we learn about Highland life at a 'Clansman Show'. Overnights Inverness.

Days 4-5: Jacobite steam train
After a scenic coach trip to coastal Mallaig, we board the famous Jacobite steam train for an evocative journey, crossing the Glenfinnan Viaduct. Another spectacular trip awaits on Day 5, as the West Highland Line carries us to Glasgow for afternoon tea. Overnights Fort William/Glasgow.

Days 6-7: Belfast and Giant's Causeway
Leaving Scotland, we cross to Northern Ireland via ferry. A coach tour reveals Belfast's troubled past before we explore the Titanic Center. On Day 7, a coastal drive past beautiful vistas takes us to Giant's Causeway, the iconic basalt columns stretching into the sea. Overnights Belfast.

Day 8: Hillsborough Castle and Cork
A guided tour reveals the royal history of Hillsborough Castle, before a coach takes us to Dublin where we board a direct train to Cork for the night. Overnight Cork.

Days 9-10: Kerry, the 'Kingdom County'
At Blarney Castle, there's chance to kiss the Blarney Stone before free time in Killarney. Day 10 begins with a Jaunting Car ride while a drive around the Ring of Kerry unveils dramatic views. This evening we gather for a dinner with traditional Irish entertainment. Overnights Killarney.

Days 11-12: Cliffs of Moher & Dublin
Crossing the Shannon into County Clare, we experience a boat trip into the Atlantic to view the Cliffs of Moher from below. We reach Dublin's 'fair city' by rail on Day 12, and a coach tour uncovers iconic landmarks like the Guinness Storehouse and Trinity College. Our farewell dinner is in the nearby mountains at the highest pub in Ireland. Overnights Galway/Dublin.

Day 13: Homeward bound
After breakfast, your holiday comes to an end and you can head home.

BLARNEY CASTLE

Dublin & the Enchanting Emerald Isle

Immerse yourself in Ireland's breathtaking landscapes, legendary castles, historic cities, and thriving traditions from Dublin and Cork to the striking west coast.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arriving in Dublin
Your vacation begins on arrival in the Irish capital and transfer to the hotel independently. After meeting the Tour Manager, we enjoy our first dinner together. Overnight Dublin.

Day 2: Jameson Whiskey Tasting
Traveling by train from Dublin to Cork, we then head to nearby Midleton for a tour of the historic Jameson whiskey distillery, followed by a tasting. After, your day is free in Cork. Overnight Cork.

Day 3: Blarney Castle
A coach takes us to Blarney Castle after breakfast this morning as we delve into Ireland's rich folklore. After exploring, there's chance to kiss the Blarney Stone. Continuing by coach, we stop at Molly Gallivans Visitor Center for a tasting of poitín. Overnight Killarney.

Day 4: Ring of Kerry
A ride in a Jaunting Car – an open horse-drawn carriage – takes us to Ross Castle. Later, we admire the dramatic beauty of the Ring of Kerry on a drive around the coast, viewing Torc Waterfall and Moll's Gap. This evening, we enjoy a traditional Irish Night at a farmhouse. Overnight Killarney.

Day 5: Cliffs of Moher from the Sea
Crossing the Shannon to Doolin, we embark on an unforgettable boat trip. Sailing to the staggering Cliffs of Moher, we marvel at Ireland's most iconic natural attraction. Overnight Ennis.

Day 6: Burren & Galway
Heading through the Burren, we arrive in Galway. At a tavern, we learn how to pour the perfect pint of Guinness, before indulging in a medieval banquet at the 15th-century Bunratty Castle. Overnight Ennis.

Day 7: Coals & Castles in Roscommon
A visit to the historic Arigna Mines takes us deep underground on a tour guided by a former miner. After, we check in to our hotel – the 18th-century Kilronan Castle. Overnight Ballyfarnon.

Day 8: Discovering Dublin
We return to Ireland's capital by coach. You are free to discover the delights of Dublin at leisure and could visit the Guinness Storehouse or view the Book of Kells. Overnight Dublin.

Feel captivated by Italy

From art and architecture to culture, cuisine and natural wonder, Italy inspires from top to toe.

On our Independent and Escorted tours, you can immerse yourself in one of Italy's spellbinding regions or enjoy the country's best sights.

Uncover history first hand in Rome and Pompeii, gaze upon genius in the galleries of Florence, cruise the canals of Venice or sail the Amalfi Coast. Savor an espresso in a shaded piazza or escape to the timeless Tuscan olive groves.

Wherever you choose to go, 'La Dolce Vita' awaits.

TUSCANY

CINQUE TERRE

Highlights of Italy Featuring Tuscany & Venice

Uncover Italy's iconic landmarks and hidden gems on this epic tour combining great cities of Venice and Rome with ancient Pompeii and the coastlines of the Cinque Terre and Amalfi.

YOUR ITINERARY

Days 1-2: Venice, 'La Serenissima'
Your tour of Italy's highlights begins as you arrive independently at our hotel in Venice. On Day 2, a guided walking tour reveals significant sights including St. Mark's Square and the Grand Canal. Overnights Venice.

Days 3-4: Treasures of Tuscany
After a free morning in Venice, we travel by train to the historic Tuscan spa town of Montecatini Terme. Day 4 begins with a rail journey to the beautiful city of Florence. This Renaissance gem overflows with incredible locations, which we explore on a guided tour – including the Duomo and the Ponte Vecchio. Overnights Montecatini Terme.

Day 5: Colorful Cinque Terre
Traveling to La Spezia by coach, an expert guide whisks us between the Cinque Terre by train and boat as we explore these colorful cliffside villages, each with awe-inspiring views. Overnight Montecatini Terme.

Days 6-7: The Eternal City of Rome
Joining the train to Florence, we continue by rail to Italy's timeless capital, Rome. After checking in to our hotel, there is free time until dinner. On Day 7, we head out on a guided tour, walking from the Colosseum, past the Roman Forum to Piazza Navona. Our expert guide brings to life the history of this great city, before a coffee stop near the iconic Trevi Fountain. Overnights Rome.

Day 8: Naples & Sorrento
A morning at leisure is followed by a train journey south to Naples. Our first taste of the region comes during a visit to an agriturismo – a family-run farm restaurant providing a delicious meal of fresh produce. Later, we check in to our hotel. Overnight Sorrento.

Days 9-10: Amalfi Coast & Pompeii
The crystalline waters of the Amalfi Coast are enjoyed on a relaxing cruise along the coast to the beautiful towns of Amalfi and Positano. This evening, we learn how to make traditional pizza. Overnight Sorrento.

Day 10: The ancient city of Pompeii
Today, we explore the preserved remains of Pompeii. This spellbinding sight transports us back in time as we uncover life before the eruption of Mt. Vesuvius in 79AD. Afterward, we return to Rome by train. Overnight Rome.

Day 11: Homeward bound
Your Italian tour concludes and you can make your way to Rome airport.

Zermatt & St. Moritz featuring Glacier Express

Experience Matterhorn views on the Gornergrat Railway, travel to St. Moritz on the Glacier Express, and cross the Alps on the Bernina Express for an in-depth discovery of Swiss wonders.

YOUR ITINERARY

Day 1: Arrival in Zürich
Landing in Switzerland, make your way to your hotel in Zürich. Spend the rest of your day exploring the sights of this historic city. Overnight Zürich.

Day 2: At leisure in Zermatt
Venture south aboard Switzerland's fast and efficient trains to the scenic mountain town of Zermatt. On the approach, marvel as the Matterhorn appears in view. The rest of the day is free to explore and you could use your Swiss Travel Card which provides 50% discounts on rail travel and most mountain railways. Overnight Zermatt.

Day 3: Gornergrat Railway
Today is your chance to soak in the full glory of the Matterhorn, and you do so from aboard the Gornergrat Railway, the highest open-air cog railway in Europe. The ride takes just over half an hour to complete and showcases the incredible beauty of the Matterhorn. As you climb to a final elevation of 10,134 feet above sea level, enjoy fantastic alpine vistas from both sides of the train. The views from the summit are astonishing. Soak in the wonders of the Matterhorn from one of the viewing platforms or during a hike. Overnight Zermatt.

Day 4: Glacier Express
Known affectionately as the world's 'slowest express train', the Glacier Express carries you the full length of its route today. This world-famous journey passes through alpine valleys, winds over high mountain passes and weaves past turquoise rivers. Snaking along the UNESCO-listed Albula Line, it traverses the curved Landwasser Viaduct and makes its way to St. Moritz. After this unforgettable experience, transfer to your hotel with the rest of the day free to explore this celebrated mountain resort. Overnight St. Moritz.

Day 5: Bernina Express
Another beloved rail line hosts your adventures today as you join the Bernina Express for a route that travels from the snowy peaks and glaciers of Switzerland to the palm trees of Tirano, Italy. Soak up the changing views of valleys, glaciers and beautiful mountain panoramas. Enjoy time in Tirano before returning to St. Moritz on the Bernina Express. Overnight St. Moritz.

Day 6: Homeward bound
Your vacation concludes as you travel by train back to Zürich, from where you can begin your journey home.
